

STATUS OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE NEW BVV CORPORATE GOVERNANCE CODE*

Provisions of the Code	Explanations	Compliance
Section A - Responsibilities
A.1. All companies should have internal regulation of the Board which includes terms of reference/ responsibilities for Board and key management functions of the company, applying, among others, the General Principles of Section A.		YES
A.2. Provisions for the management of conflict of interest should be included in Board regulation.		YES
A.3. The Board of Directors should have at least five members.		YES
A.4. The majority of the members of the Board should be non-executive. Not less than two non-executive members of the Board of Directors should be independent, in the case of Premium Tier Companies. Each member of the Board should submit a declaration that he/she is independent at the moment of his/her nomination for election or re-election as well as when any change in his/her status arises, by demonstrating the ground on which he/she is considered independent in character and judgment.		YES
A.5. A Board member's other relatively permanent professional commitments and engagements, including executive and nonexecutive Board positions in companies and not-for-profit institutions, should be disclosed to shareholders and to potential investors before appointment and during his/her mandate.		YES
A.6. Any member of the Board should submit to the Board, information on any relationship with a shareholder who holds directly or indirectly, shares representing more than 5% of all voting rights.		YES
A.7. The company should appoint a Board secretary responsible for supporting the work of the Board.		YES
A.8 The corporate governance statement should inform on whether an evaluation of the Board has taken place under the leadership of the chairman or the nomination committee and, if it has, summarize key action points and changes resulting from it. The company should have a policy/guidance regarding the evaluation of the Board containing the purpose, criteria and frequency of the evaluation process.	The Board of Directors of SIF Banat-Crişana completed its composition in 2015 following several successive general meetings of shareholders (GMS). Moreover, under the regulations applicable to the Company, the administrators elected by the GMS were subject to ASF endorsement, exercising their effective mandate only after obtaining this endorsement (details of changes in the composition of the Board are presented in Chapter 3 of the Report). Thus, for 2015, the Board was faced with the impossibility of making an objective and eloquent assessment of its activity, given the very short period of operation in its entirety and completely different periods of the mandate for the majority of its members.	NO
A.9. The corporate governance statement should contain information on the number of meetings of the Board and the committees during the past year, attendance by directors (in person and in absentia) and a report of the Board and committees on their activities.		YES

A.10. The corporate governance statement should contain information on the precise number of the independent members of the Board of Directors.	YES
A.11 The Board of Premium Tier companies should set up a nomination committee formed of non-executives, which will lead the process for Board appointments and make recommendations to the Board. The majority of the members of the nomination committee should be independent.	The Board of Directors in its entirety undertakes the duty of a separate nomination committee, to evaluate the candidates for a position in the Board (i.e. administrator of the Company) it is going to propose to the election of the general meeting of shareholders. Conditions and criteria for the eligibility and incompatibilities for the position of Board member (i.e. administrator of the Company) are strict and explicitly regulated by the Financial Supervisory Authority, which has the capacity to endorse the administrators elected by the general meeting of shareholders.
